

Canton City Health Department

Daily Air Quality Data

Current Reporting Date:

8/27/2012 9:25 AM

The AQI information is:

AQI: 47
Primary pollutant: Ozone
Category¹:

Basis for AQI: Based on the air quality from the time period covering 8 AM of yesterday to 8 AM of today.

The pollen information is:

Pollen count: 150 per cubic meter
Pollen types: Ragweed 90%
Misc 10%
Category²: High

Pollen counts are rounded to the nearest 5/m³. Counts are taken for the previous 24 hours, Monday through Friday mornings, and represent an hourly average. Actual levels at any particular time throughout the day may be higher or lower than the average count.

The mold information is:

Mold count: 2,210 per cubic meter
Mold types: Cladosporium 5%
Category³: Low
Rainfall amount: 0.25 inches

Mold counts to the nearest 10/m³. Counts are taken for the previous 24 hours, Monday through Friday mornings, and represent an hourly average. Actual levels at any particular time throughout the day may be higher or lower than the average count.

¹AQI categories defined by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

²Pollen categories defined by The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology.

³Mold categories defined by The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology.

For further inquiries, please contact the Canton City Health Department, Air Pollution Control Division, at (330) 489-3385.