Ohio Personal Responsibility Education Program (PREP) for Foster Care and Justice Involved Youth

Ohio Personal Responsibility Education Program (PREP)

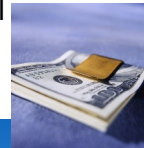

Ohio PREP seeks to reduce teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted infection rates in Ohio's youth, ages 14-19, residing in the foster care and juvenile justice systems.

Youth in these systems have an increased vulnerability for risky sexual behaviors, often moving from home to home or from detention centers, making it difficult to learn and discuss sexual health with trusted adults or within school health classes. PREP will provide this education, outside of the school day, for these youth.

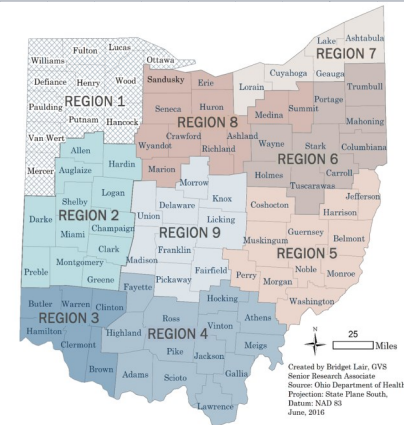

Ohio PREP is administered by the Ohio Department of Youth Services in partnership with The Ohio Department of Health and The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services.

Direct care staff from both the foster care and juvenile justice systems receive training on the evidence-based Reducing the Risk (RTR) curriculum, which they present to their youth. In addition, three adulthood topics are incorporated to aid youth in the successful transition into adulthood.

To maximize program success, Ohio is divided into nine regions, each consisting of multiple counties. Each region is awarded funding from the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF), Family and Youth Service Bureau (FYSB). The funded agencies work directly with the foster care and juvenile justice agencies within their region.
