Human Trafficking in Northeast Ohio

Presented By:

Sherri McKinney-Frantz, MAOL, LSW
Administrator, The Children's Network

Joseph Mongold
Detective, City of Canton Police Department

Sherri McKinney-Frantz has dedicated her career to working with Stark County children and families who have experienced trauma. A strong child advocate, Sherri has been leading the Children's Network of Stark County since October of 2014. Sherri enjoys leading teams and specializes in cutting-edge program development and expansion. She serves on several boards, volunteers in the community and enjoys mentoring others. A graduate of Leadership

Stark County's 22nd Class, she received her Bachelor of Social Work degree from the University of Cincinnati and earned her Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership from Malone University. Sherri has been a licensed social worker in the State of Ohio since 1989.

Joseph Mongold is a twenty-two year law enforcement veteran serving as a detective with the City of Canton Police Department. He specializes in physical and sexual abuse investigations involving children and is responsible for all Human Trafficking cases involving minors. He is currently assigned to the Juvenile Bureau and investigates all crimes of abuse involving minors. Additional responsibilities include reporting, evidence collection, and interviewing and interrogation of suspects. Joe is a 1994 graduate of Ohio Basic Police Academy. He is an Adjunct Instructor at Stark State College where he conducts training classes for Basic Ohio Police Officer candidates.
