

Ohio PREP

Personal Responsibility Education Program

FREE

Regional Coalition Meeting Invitation

Dana Hale, RN, BSN, Canton City Health Department
Molly Malloy, RN, Canton City Health Department
Frank Catrone, RN, Canton City Health Department

Dianna Kerr, PhD, MCHES, Kent State University
Julie Chaya, Kent State University Grad Assistant

Diana Miller, BS, LICDC, Career Navigation Group
Julie Paine, BA, H.E., Independent Contractor

Human Trafficking 101 Presentation

By Jan Apisa, Public Education Specialist

Wednesday, July 15

12:00-1:30 pm

Northeast Ohio Regional Training Center
264 South Arlington St.
Akron, Ohio 44306

Lunch provided at no cost

Ohio is 4th in the Nation for reports of Sex Trafficking

The Office of Criminal Justice Services AmeriCorps Prevention and Awareness of Trafficking in Humans (PATH) Program was created to place 10 Public Education Specialist members throughout the state of Ohio (Columbus, Cincinnati, Toledo and Akron) to provide human trafficking awareness and education to the public. The Human Trafficking 101 presentation provides an overview of sex and labor human trafficking throughout the world, the United States and locally. Federal and state definitions and statistics are covered as well as vulnerability factors and recruitment, traffickers and Johns, Ohio's initiatives to combat the problem and individual empowerment.

Seating is limited. RSVP by Thursday, July 2, 2015, to Molly Malloy at mmalloy@cantonhealth.org or 330-489-3322.