

CANTON CITY PUBLIC HEALTH
DAILY AIR QUALITY DATA

Current reporting date: 11/10/2022

The AQI information is:

AQI: 25

Primary pollutant: Particulate

Category: Good

Basis for AQI: Based on the air quality from the time period covering 12 AM of yesterday to 12 AM of today.

For the most current AQI readings click here.

The pollen information is:

Pollen count: 0

Pollen count per type details: None Observed

Category: Low

Pollen counts are in count/m³. Counts are taken for the previous 24 hours, Monday through Friday mornings, and represent an hourly average. Actual levels at any particular time throughout the day may be higher or lower than the average count.

The fungi/mold information is:

Fungi/Mold count: 1600

Fungi/Mold count per type details: 900 Cladosporium
40 Alternaria
660 Unidentified

Category: Low

Fungi/Mold counts are rounded to the nearest 10/m³. Counts are taken for the previous 24 hours, Monday through Friday mornings, and represent an hourly average. Actual levels at any particular time throughout the day may be higher or lower than the average count.

For AQI questions, please contact the Air Pollution Control Division at (330) 489-3385.
For pollen and fungi/mold questions, please contact the Laboratory Division at (330) 489-3231.

AQI categories defined by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.
Fungi/Mold categories defined by The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology.
Pollen categories defined by The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology.